Origin and History:

AMIEL is one of the biggest cooperative wineries of the Languedoc region. It is located in Trèbes, near Narbonne, and specializes in Vin de Table and Vin de Pays production. They select the grapes with the utmost care from hundreds of producers. Their objective is to produce the best value for the best prices available on the market.

Technical Data:

Agriculture Soil - (Composition/Surface):

Grapes come from the best plots selected by our oenologists. Soils are made of clay with subsoil of limestone

Vinification process:

Traditional vinification process. It is done by a soft and long extraction of aromas and tannins. 10 to 15 days of maceration in vats in addition to an aging period in oak barrels

Wine Tasting:

Comments:

With a deep velvety red color texture, a perfect nose of blackberry and cherry with hints of liquorices, this wine has rounded and integrated tannins with a good aromatic persistency.

Wine and Food:

This wine could be served with all grilled or roasted red meats and most cheeses.

Max. period of conservation:
